SHOULD PLACE AMERICA FIRST

President Warns Foreigners
Loyalty Is Necessary.

AUDIENCE MOSTLY VETERANS

Speaking at Arlington National Cemetery Mr. Wilson Defends His Recent Suggestion for an Alliance of Nations to Preserve Peace.

Washington, May 31.—President Wilson delivered a Memorial day address here in which he defined the spirit of America, warned citizens of foreign birth not to set themselves against the purposes of the nation, called upon young men to perform voluntary military service and defended his recent suggestion for an alliance of nations to preserve peace.

He spoke at Arlington national cemetery before an audience made up largely of Civil war veterans, who applauded him vigorously.

While he declared he had no harshness in his heart for Americans of foreign birth and expected them still to love the sources of their origin, the president said "America must come first in every purpose we entertain and every man must count upon being cast out of our confidence, cast out even of our tolerance, who does not submit to that great ruling principle."

Speaking of America, made up out of all the people of the world, as the champion of the rights of mankind, he said:

Ready to Fight Aggression.

"We are not only ready to co-operate, but we are ready to fight against any aggression whether from within or without. But we must guard ourselves against any sort of aggression which would be unworthy of America. We are ready to fight for our rights when those rights are coincident with the rights of man and humanity."

Of published criticisms reminding him that George Washington warned the nation against "entangling alliances," he said:

"I shall never myself consent to an entangling alliance, but would gladly assent to a disentangling alliance, an alliance which would disentangle the peoples of the world from those combinations in which they seek their own separate and private interests, and unite the people of the world to preserve the peace of the world upon a basis of common right and justice."

The president said he was for "universal voluntary training," but that "America does not wish anything but the compulsion of the spirit of America."

He added that the people of the nation were teaching each other and that a great many men, even when they did not want to, were going to stand up and say "here."

Life and Death Grapple.

"The war in Europe has done a very natural thing in America," the president said. "It has stirred the memories of men drawn from many of the belligerent stocks. It has renewed in them a national feeling which had grown faint under the soothing influences of peace, but which now flares up when it looks as if nation had challenged nation to a final reckoning, and they remember the nations from which they were sprung and know that they are in this life and death grapple."

"It is not singular, my fellow citizens, that this should have occurred and up to a certain point it is not just that we should criticize it. We have no criticism for men who love the places of their birth and the sources of their origin. We do not wish men to forget their mothers and their fathers, their forebears running back through long, laborious generations which have taken part in the building up of the strength and spirit of other nations. No man quarrels with that. From such springs of sentiment we all draw some of the hand-some inspirations of our lives."

"But all that we do criticize is that in some instances—they are not very numerous—but in some instances men have allowed this old order of another nationality to overcloud their ardor for the nationality to which they have given their new and voluntary allegiance."

CIVILIAN CRUISE PLANNED

Secretary Daniels Authorizes Training Trip, Aug. 15 to Sept. 12.

Washington, May 31.—Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels has authorized and is planning a naval training cruise for civilians in motor-boats which will begin Aug. 15 and continue until Sept. 12. ## FOUR DEAD IN CRASH AT DEFENSE PARADE

Dallas, Tex., May 31.—Four persons were killed when a wooden awning collapsed in front of a store in the heart of the business district while an immense crowd was witnessing a parade in favor of preparedness.

A score of others were injured, several of them probably fatally.

Persons standing on the awning, which was suspended by chains over the sidewalk, crowded near the edge as the parade approached and, under the increased weight, the structure crashed to the ground.

The parade, with 25,000 in line, was considered one of the greatest popular demonstrations ever held in the Southwest.

ST. PAUL CAR WINS RACE

Two Persons Seriously Injured at Twin City Speedway.

St. Paul, May 31.—M. Sorenson of Minneapolis, driving his Duesenberg car, a St. Paul product, won the free for all race at the Twin City speedway. His beetle-shaped vehicle covered fifty miles in 49 minutes 56 seconds, a pace of 73.29 miles an hour.

There were nineteen starters in the big event of the Memorial day program and the officials decided to send them away in two sections.

Sorenson won the first heat and the race. The second heat and second place went to G. J. Gilbert of Minneapolis, driving a Mercer. His time was 41 minutes 23 seconds.

The day was marred by only one accident, the first to occur at the new speedway.

Dr. T. Richard Morgan's National left the track at the first turn after throwing a rear tire. The driver, Albert Anderson, and the owner, who was acting as mechanic, were thrown clear of the hurtling machine and sustained serious injuries.

Early War Settlement

Roosevelt Flays
Hyphenated Citizens

(By United Press)

St. Louis, Mo., May 31.—Theodore Roosevelt dissected, flayed and excoriated the hyphenated Americans here in a city having the second largest German-American population in the United States. Seldom has he been so vitriolic as in denouncing the moral treason of the hyphenated German-American alliance who got a large share of the Colonel's wrath. He said this organization and its branches were composed of people disloyal to the United States, and were unfit for citizenship. He made a powerful appeal for America for Americans while lauding in glowing terms the patriotism of immigrants who came to America and as citizens proved their fealty to the stars and stripes by deeds of heroism and public service.

Carranza asks the withdrawal of the United States forces from Mexico "as an evidence of good faith on part of the United States government," and further asks an explanation why the United States forces remain idle in Mexico, and stated if the forces remain and an explanation is not forthcoming the Mexican government must look upon the expedition as an unfriendly invasion.

JOHN S. MOSBY.

Famous Confederate Cavalry
Leader Dies at Washington.

FAMOUS CIVIL WAR RAIDER IS DEAD

Washington, May 31.—Colonel John S. Mosby, the most famous Confederate raider of the Civil war, died here after a long illness. He was eighty-two years old.

Mosby began his military career in the Confederate army and proved his daring with such effect that he became a scout for General J. E. B. Stuart and led the celebrated raid around McClellan's army on the Chickahominy.

In Richmond, a year later, he recruited an independent cavalry troop which became famous as Mosby's Partisan Rangers. They became night riders and the terror of federal troops.

Colonel Mosby dared death many times when at the head of his Confederate raiders he rode up and down the Shenandoah valley, capturing outposts, destroying supply trains and cutting communication lines. It has been estimated that he often neutralized the force of more than 15,000 federal troops in the valley.

Later in the war General Grant saved Colonel Mosby from hanging and the two foes of the battle period became staunch friends in the peace that followed. Colonel Mosby stumped the state of Virginia for General Grant during the latter's presidential campaign, and was rewarded with an appointment as consul at Hongkong, a post he held for seven years.

Passing of Liquor in Manitoba Today

(By United Press)

Winnipeg, May 31.—This is the last day in which liquor can be sold over the bars and in wholesale houses of Manitoba. Wholesale houses will be allowed to remain in business if they desire to transact business outside Manitoba. The same applies to breweries. Commission men will be allowed to establish themselves to take orders from householders or concerns located outside Manitoba.

Householders will be allowed to have all the liquor they want on their premises but hotels, rooming houses and bachelors will not be allowed any liquor in their rooms.

Out of 66 hotels in Winnipeg, one third will go out of business and nearly all the wholesale houses will close up. The breweries will continue to manufacture under-proof beer and soft drinks.

PRIVATE WIRE FOR COLONEL

Ten Day Service to Sagamore Hill Will Cost $9,000.

New York, May 31.—Here's a chance for wire tappers to eavesdrop some mighty interesting conversation.

Thursday afternoon a private wire will be strung from Chicago to Colonel Roosevelt's home at Sagamore Hill and its use for ten days will cost Mr. Roosevelt—or somebody else—the little sum of $9,000. Should the Progressives and Republican conventions, which will be held in Chicago, extend more than ten days, the operation of the wire will be continued until all, including the shouting, is over.

The figure disposed of the adage that talk is cheap, for the charge amounts to $900 a day, $37.50 an hour for twenty-four hours, and 62½ cents a minute.

House Works on Naval Bill.

Washington, May 31.—The house celebrated Memorial day by working out the naval appropriation bill. Debate on the measure was continued under the five-minute rule. A final vote probably will be reached Friday afternoon.

COLONEL SPEAKS AT KANSAS CITY

Thousands Unable to Hear Roosevelt's Address.

LINE OF MARCH WAS JAMMED

Former President Touches on Interesting Topics of the Day and Flays the Present Administration for Its Method of Dealing With Various Questions.

Kansas City, May 31.—Theodore Roosevelt brought his message of Americanism to Kansas City.

Kansas City, representing the great Southwest, welcomed him with throngs that could not be estimated. The crowds jammed the station plaza, lined the streets many deep all the way uptown, more than a dozen blocks; filled the windows along the line of march and packed every inch of the available space around Hotel Muehlbach.

They were "all Americans together," as Colonel Roosevelt told them when he made the first speech of the day in the lobby of the hotel. The parade, which was arranged by the American Legion, far exceeded anything which had been anticipated.

The colonel delivered a Memorial day address in Convention hall to a crowd estimated at 18,000. Thousands who came after the hall was packed were turned away.

The colonel deviated from his speech to say a facetious word about Mexico.

Ridiculous Mexican Policy.

"We are told," said he, "that we enjoy peace with Mexico. Eighteen years ago we had a war with Spain. The number of Americans killed in Mexico during this peace with Mexico surpassed the number of Americans killed by Spain in the war with Spain and when the war with Spain was through it was through, whereas peace continues to rage with unabated violence along the Mexican border."

The colonel touched on the West's attitude toward the question of preparedness.

"It has been said," he declared, "that the West is not interested because it would not suffer from war. I know that this is a lie. I would shrink as from a plague from an American who would say he does not care what happens to another American. Lofly words are poor companions if they cannot be translated into deeds."

Colonel Roosevelt's principal speech at Convention hall was heard by a cheering crowd, each person waving a small flag as a greeting to the visitor.

"We are face to face with elemental facts of right and wrong, of force or feebleness," said the colonel. "According to the spirit in which we face these facts and govern our actions, we shall determine whether in the future we shall enjoy a growing national life or suffer a lingering national decay."

"First and foremost, beware of the false prophets, both the prophets of sordid materialism, and the prophets of that silly sentimentalism which refuses to look truths in the face if the truths are unpleasant."

Refers to European War.

"If, the instant that the great war broke out in July, 1914, our fleet had been mobilized, a competent man put at the head of the navy department, our army put into proper trim and steps taken by our representatives at Washington, both executive and legislative, to show that we were making ready to meet any exigency that arose, there would have been no trouble of any kind with any belligerent. The thousands of noncombatants, men, women and children, including many hundreds of American men, women and children, who have been killed on the high seas, owe the loss of their lives primarily to the supine inaction of this nation; to our failure to prepare and our failure in instant insistence on our rights and on those rights of others which we had guaranteed to protect."

"Weakness invites contempt. Weakness combined with bluster invites both contempt and aggression."

"I believe in international duty. I hold that we cannot assert that we are entirely guiltless of responsibility for the outrages committed on well behaved nations, particularly on Belgium, and on noncombatants, particularly on women and children, in the present war."

"When we declined to take any action under these conventions and treaties we ourselves treated them as 'scraps of paper.'"

Barber at Minneapolis Sets the Value of Tanlac at a High Figure

Minneapolis, Minn., May 31—"One bottle of Tanlac has done me more good, than the $500 I spent previously trying to get relief," Eugene Roseau said recently. Mr. Roseau is a barber employed at the Elgin Hotel and is well known here.

"I suffered with stomach trouble for nine years," he continued. "I couldn't sleep. Indigestion bothered me and accumulations of gas formed on my stomach."

"A fellow barber recommended Tanalac. I've taken only one bottle of the medicine but I sleep much better now, and my appetite has returned.
This last week I gained four pounds.
Tanalac has done me more good than the $500 I spent previously and I truly believe it is 'the Master Medicine.'"

Tanalac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, and the like and is a fine blood purifier and general system cleanser.

Tanalac is now being specially in-

as to endanger other buildings or property, which condition, from the standpoint of a fire hazard, is dangerous.

Notice was today served on Mayor
Dr. R. A. Belsie by Sheriff Claus A.
Theorin. The frame building must be removed by being torn down and demolished and all material must be hauled away within 45 days. This by the way, marks the first step in opening South Fifth street so as to afford a crossing over the tracks at that point.

In a letter to the Dispatch State Fire Marshal Hargardine writes: "I have had several complaints concerning this old fire hall, so recently made a personal inspection and believe it to be sufficiently of a fire hazard to be removed."

"At the time I was in Brainerd, while not having an opportunity to make a thorough inspection of the city, I was delighted with the general conditions and expect, sometime in the near future, to have one of my deputies make a more thorough inspection. If we, at that time, find any other dilapidated buildings in the city we will also order them condemned."

WOMAN'S REALM

SYMPHONY TONIGHT

Ambitious Program to be Given at Opera House Commencing at 8:30 O'Clock

In America the greatest influence for the cultivation of music in any of its branches has been the symphony orchestra.

Next season Brainerd will have three symphony concerts jointly with a choral union of 30 or 40 voices. At each concert a standard classical work will be rendered by the choral club accompanied by the orchestra. It is planned that at each concert there shall be 100 participants.

"How much does one concert cost?" has often been asked and the answer is $150. Those given next year are to cost more than that. It is a civic undertaking and those who have the concerts in charge will spend next year in proportion to the revenue guaranteed at the opening of the season.

No one should miss the last concert of the season given tonight at the opera house. The orchestra is composed of 32 or more musicians.

Wellen-Basford

Fred H. Wellen of Woodrow and Miss Naomi Basford of Brainerd called at the Methodist parsonage on Monday, May 22nd, and were quietly married by Rev. F. W. Hill. They were accompanied by Sam L. Basford, a brother of the bride and Margaret E. Scott, a sister of the bride. It was intended to keep the wedding a secret for a time but it was not long before some of their friends found it out.

A very pleasant reception was tendered them Saturday evening, May 27th, by some forty of their friends who gathered to celebrate the happy occasion. The reception was held at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. O. H. Basford. The decorations were red and white carnations.

Mr. Wellen is a merchant at Woodrow where they will be at home to their many friends after June 1st.

Heartiest congratulations are extended to this young couple as they start out on their wedded life.

Norwegian-Danish Society

Evangelical Aid

Keeping Up to the Mark

"Spring fever" is not always a joke. If you feel dull and sluggish, tired and worn out, suffer from backache or weak back, rheumatism, sore muscles, stiff joints or other indication of kidney trouble, it will pay you to investigate Foley Kidney Pills. They are highly recommended as prompt and efficient aids to health. H. P. Dunn, druggist—Adv't. mwf

Tells What She Thinks

Anna Hawn, Cedar Grove, Me., writes: "We think Foley Cathartic Tablets are the best liver pill we ever got hold of, as they do not nauseate or gripe, but act freely on the liver." Recommended for constipation, bloating, sour stomach, gas on stomach, bad breath, clogged or irregular bowel action. H. P. Dunn, druggist—Adv't. mwf

A NATIVE ARTIST

Wilfred Canan, "Billiecan" Drew Fine Sketch in Dispatch Typifying Memorial Day

The very excellent drawing typifying Memorial Day as featured in the Dispatch today, was made by Wilfred Canan, well known as "Billiecan." He is a Brainerd boy who by sheer force of will and intense study and application is perfecting himself as a newspaper artist.

Mr. Canan has a brand new idea for showing his work. At a price quoted each merchant he makes a large pen and ink drawing. The original is placed on display in the merchant's window and a cut made is run in the Dispatch.

The first merchant to take advantage of this new method of publicity is H. P. Dunn. Mr. Dunn is always public spirited and whole hearted and he bought the Memorial Day drawing. The cut, which is the property of Mr. Canan, was made and appears in the Dispatch today.

Other timely sketches will be made and featured in similar manner, as other merchants follow the example of Mr. Dunn.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

Strengthened by Brainerd Experience

Kidney disease is too dangerous to neglect. At the first sign of backache, headache, dizziness or urinary disorders, you should give the weakened kidneys prompt attention. Eat little meat, take things easier and use a reliable kidney tonic. There's no other kidney medicine so well recommended as Doan's Kidney Pills. Brainerd people rely on them. Here is one of the many statements from Brainerd people.

Mrs. T. F. Mooney, 209 Gillis St., Brainerd, says: "I have known about Doan's Kidney Pills for some time. I procured this medicine at H. P. Dunn's Drug Store, and it certainly was of great benefit to me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mooney had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv't.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORY OF TODAY

W. H. Howland takes the stage with both feet and is the hero of the oddest story column today. It happened this way.

This morning the chef of the Ransford burst into the office of Manager Andrew Berglund and said there was a wildcat in the refrigerator. There was a terrific racket in the ice chamber and he wanted Andrew to be there when the door opened.

Andrew took out his Brainerd Rifle club Krag, loaded up, set the sights at 10 feet and went to the refrigerator whose interior measured some ten feet square, large enough to hold several wildcats.

There was no doubt about the noise. The door was cautiously opened and out bounded Howland. It appears he had some fish in the ice box and stopping to examine them, the ice box door clicked shut and locked him up for thirty minutes.

The temperature is 20 below and Howland was nearly frozen stiff. Continuous exercising and fox trotting around the interior, he learned that in the chorus "Miss Cherryblossom," is all that saved Howland from freezing to death this nice summer weather.

TO HONOR MEMORY OF RAILWAY MAN

All Activities on Minnesota & International and Big Fork & International Falls Rys.

CEASED TODAY FROM 2 to 2:05

As a Mark of Respect to James J. Hill—Brainerd General Office Closed in Afternoon

Wednesday, May 31, was the day of the funeral of James J. Hill, great railway builder and most prominent man of the Northwest. Out of respect of the memory of the man who aided in the upbuilding of the Northern Pacific railway and subsidiaries, not a wheel turned for a period this afternoon on every road in which he was interested. The following is a copy of general orders issued by W. H. Gemmell, general manager of the M. & I. and B. F. and I. F. railways:

Minnesota & International Railway Company, Big Fork & International Falls Railway Company.

Brainerd, Minn., May 30, 1916. All Employees:

As a mark of respect to Mr. Jas. J. Hill the President directs that all activities on the railroad be stopped for five minutes at the time of his funeral at two P. M. tomorrow Wednesday in St. Paul.

All trains will therefore come to a stop and remain standing and all work on sections, in shops, roundhouses and stations will cease from 2:00 P. M. to 2:05 P. M. Wednesday.

The Brainerd General Office will close at 1:00 P. M. Wednesday and remain closed for the day.

W. H. GEMMELL, General Manager.

On all sides in Brainerd one hears expressions of regret at the passing away of one who has been such a factor in constructive work. James J. Hill never destroyed, he built up. He leaves behind an empire, country dotted with thousands of cities and happy homes, banded by the rails of his roads.

BETTING IN WALL STREET

Justice Hughes Is Favorite for Republican Nomination.

New York, May 31.—Betting in the Wall street district as to the candidate most likely to obtain the Republican presidential nomination has become active, with Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes favorite.

Chester Thompson, who handles most of the big wagers in the financial district, reported that about $225,000 had been placed in his hands to bet on Hughes at even money, this money coming largely from Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston. Saturday the odds against Hughes were 7 to 5. Thompson also reported that about $75,000 has been placed in his hands to bet on Roosevelt at the prevailing odds of 8 to 5 against the chances of the former president being nominated.

The odds quoted against the other candidates were: Root, 8 to 1; Fairbanks, 15 to 1; Burton, 25 to 1; Ford, 40 to 1, and the others 50 to 1.

KENYON FILIBUSTER FAILS

Rivers and Harbors Bill Passes the Senate.

Washington, May 31.—After a long filibuster, led by Senator Kenyon of Iowa, the senate has passed the rivers and harbors bill, 35 to 22.

The bill appropriates $43,000,000, of which Minnesota gets $9,000, outside of $1,500,000 for work from the mouth of the Missouri to St. Paul, and $180,000 for the Duluth-Superior harbor.

Both Minnesota senators voted for the measure.

Nine Democrats and twenty-three Republican senators voted against it. Among them were Senators Hastings, Cummins, Kenyon and La Follette.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"DAMAGED GOODS"

Great Photo-Play Today and Tomorrow at the Best Theatre, Afternoon and Evening

"Damaged Goods" is proving the nation's sensation in motion pictures. It will be shown afternoons and evenings at the Best Theatre this Wednesday and Thursday.

In reviewing this production in "The Chicago Examiner" James Warren Currie wrote:

"My typewriter stutters as I attempt to write about the film version of 'Damaged Goods.' One's feelings are those of a man when an express train has whizzed by at seventy miles an hour within an inch of his nose. The seven reels constituting Brieux's play are the dotted lines which make the dramatic moral diagram breathlessly clear. It is an opportunity given to understand with the eye what might not have been comprehended by the ear, though even this possibility was negligible as Bennett presented the play on the spoken stage. It is the reallism of actual life.

"A wealth of detail and lavish scenic effects, coupled with vivid pantomime, have accomplished the maximum to be accomplished in the telling of the film story. No one can fail to understand and inasmuch as this was the self-declared object of Mr. Bennett and the producers, eminent success has been achieved.

"The acting of Mr. Bennett and his supporting company is worthy of comment. None, I am told, has ever appeared in picture before and yet the work of each and especially of Mr. Bennett and Miss Morrison is par excellence."

AMERICANS REPAIRING ROAD

Long Stay of Troops in Mexico Is Predicted.

Columbus, N. M., May 31.—Military men here foresee a long stay of the American expedition in Mexico when under urgent orders from General Pershing the engineer corps began work on an abandoned railway right of way to the Mormon colony at Colonia Dublin.

The roadbed will be repaired for use by the motor truck trains from Columbus.

Autoist Dies of Broken Heart.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 31.—An automobile driven by Leo O. Bales ran over and killed Leonard Harold, thirteen years old. Bales is dead of a broken heart, although he was found blameless of the accident and exonerated by City Judge Newton in a letter written at the request of Bales' physician in the hope of saving the man's life.

The Seven Seas.

"The seven seas" is a poetic name for the oceans of the earth. The "waters embraced" in the term include, therefore, all the great waters of the earth. Specifically the seven seas are divided as the north and south Atlantic, north and south Pacific, Arctic, Antarctic and Indian oceans.

PLUG CHEWING A WHOLESOME HABIT

In No Other Way Can You Get All the Richness and Flavor of the Leaf

"SPEAR HEAD" BEST CHEW

Many prominent physicians declare chewing to be the most wholesome way of enjoying tobacco.

"I began chewing some years ago," said one, "and I soon found that it is the only way to get the benefit of all the rich juices stored up by nature in the tobacco leaf. I refer, of course, to the plug form of tobacco, which is the most natural and the cleanest form.

"Chewing good tobacco like Spear Head makes the salivary glands more active, which in turn has a beneficial effect on the whole system. Add to this the sweet, mellow, delicious flavor of a chew of Spear Head, and you have the highest possible degree of tobacco satisfaction.

"I mention Spear Head because I have found that this brand is exceptionally pure, being made in a factory that's run strictly according to pure-food rules."

Spear Head is made of sun-ripened Burley, which is acknowledged to be the richest, mildest, finest flavored tobacco leaf in the world. And it is produced by the latest processes, which develop the quality and luscious flavor of the choice Burley to the supreme degree.

A chew of Spear Head has a wholesome relish that is not found in any other chewing tobacco. Try a 5c or 10c cut.

FROM AN OLD SOLDIER

George H. Long Writes of War Time
Recollections, Heard Abraham Lincoln Speak

In a letter to the Dispatch George H. Long, of 516 Maple street, North east Brainerd, writes:

"I am an old civil war soldier. I have been making my home with my daughter here on Maple street Northeast for the last 15 years and I am glad to say I have attended Decoration Day exercises the past 14 years.
"But this year I am not able to walk. I can read yet without my glasses, and eat a good, hearty meal, also sleep well.

"I enlisted in the 21st Wisconsin
Infantry on June 6, 1861 under General Grant. I was at that time 22 years of age. I fought in a good many hard battles, at Vicksburg, Bull Run, Lookout Mountain, at Atlanta and in Charleston.

"I received a bullet in my right leg which I will carry to my grave.
I will be 73 years old June 12.

"I am glad to say that I had the honor to stand guard one night over President Lincoln's tent. I have spoken to him personally. I heard him speak more than once. And I must say to this day, that Mr. Lincoln's speeches are today as fresh in my memory as when I heard that famous Gettysburg address.

"Lincoln spoke on that day to many thousand people. With tears in his eyes he pleaded for his countrymen and also for the men in blue.
I do not think there was a dry eye within reach of Mr. Lincoln's voice.
Lincoln's speeches were the greatest speeches I have ever heard and that great man will be in my memory until God calls me to another world. It will not be many years before the old soldiers will be gone. In 1915, 5,000 died.

"Lincoln's words and speeches will last as long as the world will stand and that is forever."

Mr. Long still has good eye sight and reads the Dispatch every evening, as his son-in-law takes the paper. He praised the Dispatch as being clean, up-to-date and progressive, and it gave him great delight to read it.

RESULTS IN FIRST
TRACK MEET HELD

Inter-Class Track Meet of Brainerd
High School Reveals Many Athletes

SOPHOMORES LEAD—48 POINTS

R. Reis, Junior, Was High Man of the Day with 28 Points, Got 5 Firsts

In the first inter-class track meet,
held by the Brainerd high school,
some very interesting races and other track events were pulled off. Considering the fact that very little preliminary training or preparation was given for the events, the results may be considered as very satisfactory.

*****
* The Sophomores won 1st place *
* with 48 points. *
* The Juniors won 2nd place *
* with 31 points. *
* The Seniors won 3rd place *
* with 21 points. *
* The Freshmen followed with * * 10 points. *
*****

Reis was high man of the day with 28 points, winning five firsts and one second. He was followed by Croswell, with the count of 19½ points.
Most of the events were closely contested and were interesting to the spectators. It is hoped to make the inter-class track meet an annual occurrence of the school year. The results of the various events were as follows:

50 yard dash: R. Reis, Junior, 1st;
W. Koop, Senior, 2nd; S. Nicholas, Sophomore 3rd; R. Falconer, Sophomore 4th.

DROWNED BOY FOUND

Edward Setter, Lad who Fell in River
May 5, Found Near Pile Driver
at Paper Mill

The body of Edward Setter, the boy who fell into the Mississippi and drowned May 5, at 4:30 in the morning, was found near the paper mill Decoration Day morning, a short distance from where he had tumbled from the bank while fishing.

The body was badly decomposed and lay between logs near shore. It was taken in charge by the coroner's office and later hermetically sealed in a casket and sent to his former home,
Superior, Wis. His mother is Mrs.
Jennie Setter.

Mrs. Setter is the housekeeper of
J. E. Hopkins, 213 Second Avenue Northeast. The dead boy was 14 years old and leaves also two brothers, Harold aged 12 and William, 8 years old.

Mr. Hopkins said from all accounts the boy had fallen from the west bank of the river. The body was found opposite on the Brainerd side of the river near the paper mill. His coat, it was reasoned, had caught on the bottom of the river and held the body so long until the garment gave way.

The lad had attended Brainerd schools and was well liked by his friends and companions. There were short services in Brainerd, the body being sent to Superior for burial and there the last services will be held.

TRAPPED BY HIS BLIND RAGE.

For Stupid Obstinacy a Himalayan Bear Takes the Prize.

"Most wild animals are stupid as well as greedy, but for sheer brainless obstinacy in the face of opposition," writes Prince Sarath Ghosh in his book,
"The Wonders of the Jungle," "there is no animal like the Himalayan bear. If he finds a thing in his way he will always push it aside, if he can, even though it would be easier to go round the obstacle.

"The wily natives of India have observed that trait in his character and from it have contrived a trap to catch him. They select a tree with a suitable horizontal bough. At a point on the bough about ten or twelve feet from the fork they fasten a bait likely to attract the bear—honey, for example, or goat's flesh. Then from another bough above that one they suspend a heavy block of stone. The rope is so attached to the upper bough that the stone hangs between the bait and the fork of the tree.

"The bear scents the bait from a distance, comes to the tree, sees the food on the bough and climbs up the trunk of the tree. Reaching the bough, he walks along it to get at the bait. But suddenly he notices the obstacle in the way and pushes it aside with his paw.
The stone swings out of the way for a second, then it swings back and hits the bear on the paw. With a growl of irritation the bear pushes it aside more violently. The stone swings away again; then it returns with greater force and hits the bear on the chest.

"With a snarl of rage the bear gives the stone a tremendous thrust and sends it up into the air in a wide curve. Then down comes the stone in a similar curve and hits the bear a thumping whack on the ribs.
"Most animals would desist after that third blow; not so the bear. He is now in a perfectly mad rage, and a bear is a good boxer. He hits out with his paws right and left and sends the stone hurtling forward in a still wider curve.
Then after a few seconds the stone comes back and hits the bear a terrific
"uppercut" on the jaw.

"The bear is roused to white hot fury. He thinks an enemy is hiding behind the stone—as an enemy might do in the jungle—and he is determined to reach that enemy.

"But, alas, the bear never went to school and learned the law of gravity!
Every blow he hits the stone is returned tenfold. And as the stone has no brains to be knocked out at last. He will never, never give in until he is knocked out—of the tree.
"Then the wily natives hiding below rush in with a net and throw it quickly over him.
"And that is how many menageries and zoos get their Himalayan bear."

Why Not a Garden Pool?

As to the garden pool—why not have one? It may be ever so simply done, and often the more simple it is the more charming. Or it may be very elaborate and artificial, like those in the tiny toy gardens of those masters of artifice, the Japanese. No other garden feature offers greater possibilities for diversity of form or for originality than the pool. I know a city garden with high walls about it, rather a cramped garden because of the nearness of other dwellings. But under a small tree in that garden is a bit of a basin with water that is always fresh, set there in the sod to invite the birds for a daily bath. And where birds are there is the spirit of the woodland and mountains, no matter how high skyscrapers tower roundabout.—Bertha H. Smith in Countryside Magazine.

NO HOPE FOR EARLY PEACE

(By United Press)

London, May 31—The German chancellor's last speech did not give hopes for early peace. Premier Asquith told the House of Commons, in replying to a query as to whether the allies were willing to consider peace overtures.

Monster Coins.

It is understood that the largest gold coin in circulation is the gold "loof" of Anam, the French colony in eastern Asia. It is a flat round piece worth 155 English money. The next size to this unwieldy coin is the Japanese "oban," which weighs more than two and a half ounces and is about equal to ten English sovereigns.—London Opinion.

SALTS FINE FOR
ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys,
like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.
You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive;
makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

CITY PAYS HOMAGE TO ITS SOLDIER DEAD

Most Impressive Memorial Day Services Held. The Ideal Weather Permits Large Parade

MANY VETERANS TAKE PART

Orator of the Day was Attorney Walter F. Wieland Who Spoke Eloquently and Forcefully

Never in years have more impressive Memorial Day services been held in Brainerd than on Tuesday. Marked with the deepest respect, with that sympathy and love for the men who gave their all that the nation might be preserved, the ceremonies attended by the school children and citizens generally, were of the most inspiring kind. The songs, the music, the ritual, the address of the day, moved all and brought tears to the eyes of many.

The orator of the day was Attorney Walter F. Wieland, a graduate of the Brainerd high school and this, by the way, is the first time an alumnus has had the honor of speaking at the services.

Mr. Wieland said in part: "We are here to commemorate the heroic deeds of those of our citizens who when the very life of the republic was to be destroyed and the work of our forefathers of the revolutionary war was to be undone, gave to their country their very lives that the republic might endure. We are also here to commemorate the lofty patriotism and devotion to country of those of our citizens who did not give their lives in their country's service, but who at all times were ready and willing to give all if God so willed and in honoring these old soldiers of the republic let us not forget the mothers, wives and sweethearts who when their boys, husbands and lovers were called away, possibly never to return, with sorrowful hearts and tears in their eyes bade them go and serve their country well that the liberties, the homes and the fundamental principles of this great democracy might not perish from the earth.

"These mothers did not raise their boys to be soldiers, but they did raise them to be patriotic, to be brave to be unselfish, to be strong and faithful, to have courage and moral character, to fight if need be when and where duty called.

"A mother's boy belongs to her only that she may rear him for a noble service to his country, his generation and his God.

"The victory of justice, the memory of a brave son who was man enough and brave enough to give his all for his country—such a son, dead on the field of battle, were a thousand times more dear to a woman's torn heart than a living coward, whose very presence would recall his shame.

"The very spirit of selfishness and cowardice in a woman which holds back a boy from hardship will reproduce the same spirit in him and make him later her instrument of torture.

"And so I say, when we today honor these soldiers for their heroic deeds, when we recall to mind the suffering and the hardships that they endured, let us not forget the woman who with as lofty a patriotism, as great a devotion and imbued with an even greater spirit of self-sacrifice sustained the little ones through the lonesome days and nights.

"I have watched old veterans on other Memorial days. I have watched them as the flag has passed them. I have noticed the stooped shoulders straighten, the eyes dulled a little by age brighten and glisten with almost the suspicion of a tear and I have marveled at it. I know that they are experiencing a thrill and an emotion that I have missed. Still, I never see it that I am not better for having observed. If we of today could have followed them we could know what the dear old stars and stripes means to them. If we could have lived with them through the campaign in the Wilderness, if we could have been with them through the three days at Gettysburg when the Confederacy at the height of its power was checked forever, if we could have marched with Sherman to the sea, if we could have been with Grant at Richmond and with Phil Sheridan in the Valley of the Shenandoah, if we could have charged up the bullet-swept slopes of Missionary Ridge, always following the flag, always risking life and all that is dear in life, with no chance of a personal gain, but solely that the flag will never be dishonored, then we too might know what they know. Is it any wonder that the shoulders straighten and the stooped figure stands erect? They know what the flag means!

"What a wonderful heritage have you given the youth of America! We are of a great democracy. Are we now ready as citizens to each make the personal sacrifices that these men of the Grand Army made in order to assert and protect the fundamental principles upon which our form of government rests?

"Do the young men and women of today realize that each one of them as an individual owes a personal duty to the republic?

"Do they realize what might befall us if our institutions and principles for which you men fought are swept away by a foreign conqueror? Sometimes I am afraid that they do not.

"If every young man and woman and child takes part in Memorial Day as they should, if they are taught in the schools, not once a year, but every day; if they are taught in the home what this day means, what the republic stands for and does for them, what you men suffered for them; if they are taught that they should never forget their duties as citizens and that patriotism is one of the highest virtues; if they are taught in their daily life to love their country and respect the flag as you men do and as those who have passed away did,—then I do not fear for the republic.

"I commend to the parents and to the school authorities this children's creed by J. W. Hamilton, of St. Paul, and suggest that every child be taught to say it for its influence on the child and its patriotic significance:

OUR CREED

I believe in the God of all nations Who ruleth over all things for His own great purposes. I believe in my country, America, born in the love of liberty and purified in the fires of maintaining it. I believe in her destiny as the great exemplar of freedom; in her honesty of purpose, in her high ideals for the best service to all humanity—a service in which I will be a part, and which I will do my best to keep pure.

I owe allegiance and honor to her flag and constitution before any other earthly interest, and conceive it to be my highest duty to so live day by day a clean and upright life that later on I may be worthy of American citizenship.

The exercises at the cemetery were given as announced in the program published and were well rendered. School children sang. The Brainerd City band and the Booster band played. A squad of civilians fired the salute of three volleys.

SCHOOLS COME AND SCHOOLS GO

But the Little Falls Business College Stays—There is a Reason

For fourteen years the Little Falls Business College has been serving the people of Central Minnesota in a manner that has brought success to its hundreds of students and to the college. During those fourteen years fourteen business colleges have been started in the territory served by the Little Falls Business College and today there is not a one of them in existence. They have all closed their doors. There is a reason why they have closed their doors. The men who own the Little Falls Business College spend all of their time right in the school with the students. They are men of long experience both in business and in school. The students get the benefits of the owners' experience. The owners of any school can and will do more for their students than salaried employees.

The Little Falls Business College and its owners are well known throughout the northwest on account of the long years of service in this section of the country and on account of the success of their students.

The Little Falls Business College is a modern business school with ten thousand dollars' worth of the best college equipment that money will buy. You get the very best. You are not talked into short courses just

Anti-Trust Law Must be Amended

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., May 31—Declaring the Sherman Anti-Trust law should be modified to permit business interests to co-operate and promote, not restrain, trade, President Charles R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin was applauded long and loud at the opening session of the National Lumber Manufacturers' convention here today. The address was declared particularly appropriate at this time, when business men in all lines of American trade are trying to have the new federal trade relations committee given authority to pass on co-operative contracts between business concerns. They want the line drawn between advantageous co-operation and blighting monopoly.

President Van Hise, who went before a committee of congress recently and asked the amending of the anti-trust law to permit the lumber manufacturers to curtail production, under federal regulation, to a point which would make it possible for them to profitably conserve their forest supplies for future generations, explained his views on this point. He declared that under present conditions it might be possible for an industry to waste its entire natural supply to meet a present demand. Mayor William T. Thompson opened the convention. R. A. Long of Kansas City, responded. The annual address of the president was then made by President R. H. Downman of New Orleans. At the afternoon session Dr. Herman von Schrenk of St. Louis, read a paper on tests of fire-resistant paints, in which he touched on the latest move of the nation's lumbermen, to find means for making the nation's lumber building material non-inflammable.

To Get Postmaster Away from Politics

(By United Press)

New York, May 31—An appeal to two million American clubwomen to help take the postoffice department out of politics, was made by the civil service reform leader, Richard Henry Dana of Boston, before today's session of the Federated Women's clubs national convention here. Dana declared the political appointment system has made the United States postal service the poorest and most inefficient in the world. The remedy Dana suggested was to put every postal service job, from the four assistant postmaster generalships down to the lowliest carrier of a rural route, on a competitive examination basis under strict civil service rules. The speaker asserted that more than 90 per cent of all postmasterships paying $1,000 a year or more are changed with every national administration; and that appointees to the big assistant jobs in Washington sometimes are changed twice in an administration. Dana condemned "the vast majority of postoffice appointees" as being "either politicians or broken-down failures in business whom some politician desires to foist upon the United States for support and who almost never know or learn anything about the intricacies of the postal service." Dana declared the recent order that all postmasters devote all their time to the postoffice service will only "make their post-offices a political headquarters." He pointed out that we have had 15 postmaster generals in the last 30 years and suggested a long term appointment. He suggested the division of the country into postal districts, with a division superintendent for each one. In praising the railway mail service, Dana said it was efficient only because it has been under civil service for years. In concluding, the speaker declared that, although our postal service is 60 years behind that of other countries, bills now in congress for its reform are ignored because the people do not rise up and demand that the reforms be put through.

Dutch War Move Caused by Allies

(By United Press)

The Hague, May 2 (By Mail)—Despite the statements of certain pro-English newspapers, it is now known authoritatively that it was fear of the allies, and not of Germany, that prompted the Dutch government to take war-like measures a month ago. Certain reports reaching the Dutch government about steps taken by the allies at the Paris economic conference caused grave concern here. The minister of war informed newspapermen that the government was expecting an economic crisis of great importance, though he refused to go further in his statement. Evidently in anticipation of sharp measures by the allies, the government chartered several steamers and sent them to America for wheat. Measures taken by the British government to enforce the blockade of Germany are steadily becoming more irritating to the Dutch. This does not mean, however, that the anti-German feeling of the greater part of the people of Holland has been lessened.

Hollanders are generally convinced that Germany has respected Dutch neutrality in this war only because she depends upon Holland for her food supplies. The people blame high food prices upon Germany because exportations to the Kaiser's realm have lessened the supply here. The people of Holland want to be let alone by both sides.

The Rofrano Trial Will Start Today

(By United Press)

New York, May 31—Michael A. Rofrano, the Tammany politician and assistant New York street commissioner, who for more than a year walked around under the very noses of the Gotham police while they were scattering his picture and a $5,000 reward offer through every city in the country in an effort to capture and bring him to trial for hiring a gunman to do the political murder of Michael Gaimari, is scheduled to go to trial here today.

Rofrano gave himself up. He said he was tired of being hunted. He had been living in a house near Washington Square, had gone to picture shows and stood beside policemen who were looking for him. He went about to conferences with his political followers.

Rofrano in 1912 split with Tammany and formed The Home Rule Democratic club. March 8, 1915, Gaimari was shot to death. In May Gaetano Montomagnano, a New York gunman, was convicted of the murder and sentenced to the electric chair. Gaimari named Rofrano as the man higher up. Rofrano resigned his $5,000 city job and disappeared. Gaimari's slayer, Montomagnano, is now in the death house at Sing Sing, awaiting execution, but it is expected he will be brought from the death house to testify at Rofrano's trial. Rofrano said he hid because he didn't want to be tried while certain political conditions obtained. He said today he believes he will be acquitted.

Only 25 Women are Guest of Morgan

(By United Press)

New York, May 31—Only 25 of the 20,000 women delegates attending the Federated Women's Club National convention here will be received today as guests visiting the famous library in the home of J. P. Morgan. No one knows exactly who those 25 women will be; and thereby hangs a tale. Miss Anna Maxwell Jones, chairman of the art committee of the general federation, thought it would be nice for the 20,000 delegates to the biennial meeting to visit J. Pierpont Morgan's famous library while they are here. She early arranged a program which included all the museums, art galleries and some wealthy person's homes containing objects of interest and felt that the uplift tour would not be complete without a glimpse of Mr. Morgan's collection of books. So she wrote Mr. Morgan and he sent a favorable reply. It developed that there was a misunderstanding somewhere, and instead of extending the privilege to as many clubwomen as desire to visit the library Mr. Morgan limits the number to twenty-five. He sent out twenty-five engraved invitations for today and left to Miss Jones the task of choosing the lucky twenty-five. Miss Jones declines. She told Mrs. William Grant Brown, chairman of the whole biennial, that she did not lack courage, but when it came to meeting thousands of western and southern women, all eager to see the inside of that Morgan library, and having them know that she had left them out of the favored party, she backed out.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
